

Chelco VAT releases updated Overview on Cyprus VAT

Limassol - Chelco VAT Ltd has just released the most recent version of its definitive guide to Cyprus' Value Added Tax (VAT), titled 'Cyprus VAT: An Overview'.

The Overview was updated in November 2020 and represents a valuable tool for professionals at all levels dealing with VAT in Cyprus.

Authored by Managing Director of Chelco VAT, Alexis Tsielepis, and Director, Panayiotis Panayi, the Overview was first published in January 2015 and is updated as necessary.

The November 2020 update includes significant changes made to the Cyprus VAT law. These include amendments made as a result of European legislation as well as amendments made as a result of national decisions.

The Overview includes reference to some of the more significant Interpretive Circulars and Implementing Orders issued by the Cyprus Department of Taxation.
